

Don't forget to vote tomorrow

Washington state will hold its general election tomorrow, Nov. 5. In contention are many important state and local offices.

The election will also cover important issues such as Referendum 51, a bill passed by the Legislature and referred to Washington voters. It involves financing transportation improvements through fees and taxes. A source for more information is the Washington State Department of Transportation Web site, <http://www.wsdot.wa.gov/projects/r51/>.

Please exercise your right to vote tomorrow.
